Disclaimer:

The following responses have been provided primarily for the purpose of information exchange among EMN NCPs in the framework of the EMN. The contributing EMN NCPs have provided, to the best of their knowledge, information that is up-to-date, objective and reliable. Note, however, that the information provided does not necessarily represent the official policy of an EMN NCPs' Member State.

Background information:

On 11 May 2016 the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union approved the directive 2016/801 on the conditions of entry and residence of third-country nationals for the purposes of research, studies, training, voluntary service, pupil exchange schemes or educational projects and au pairing.

In preparation of the transposition of Directive 2016/801 into German law, this query intends to learn about the state of implementation of this directive in the other Member States.

In Germany, the implementation of the directive will come into effect on 1 August 2017. On residence permits within the scope of the directive, the term “Student” will be used for students while “Forscher” will be entered for researchers.

In accordance with the directive, each Member State has to set up a national contact point. The German national contact point will be located in Unit 221 of the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees. The contact person for this new responsibility will be:

Ms. Mirjam Monteiro, Unit 221

Questions

1. Has the directive already been implemented in your Member State? If not, when is the expected date of implementation?
2. In accordance with Art. 17 of the directive, which terms will be entered on the residence permits for researchers and students?
3. If the directive has already been implemented, what are the contact details of your national contact point?
